After discussion at their regularly scheduled board meeting on April 28, 2007, the Arizona Board of Osteopathic Examiners (hereafter "Board") voted to amend the terms of the probation issued pursuant to a Consent Agreement dated January 29, 2007 to the above-captioned licensee. The Board reviewed the recommendations provided for Edward L. Shapiro, D.O. (hereinafter "Respondent") and amended the probationary terms to clarify Respondent's responsibilities as provided in the original Probation Order term No. 1 as follows:

1. That Respondent may practice osteopathic medicine effective the date of this Amendment.
2. In conjunction with Probation term No. 2 in the original Order; Respondent shall have his Primary Care Physician ("PCP") test for medication levels and labs on bi-monthly basis.
3. In conjunction with Probation term No. 3 in the original Order, Respondent shall commence and continue EMDR therapy on, at least, a weekly basis until such time as his therapist recommends termination and it is granted by the Board.
4. In conjunction with Probation term No. 10 in the original Order, Respondent shall obtain a sponsor within 14 calendar days of the effective date of this Amendment.
5. All other probationary terms as stated in the original Order remain in full force and effect until such time as they are amended or terminated by the Board.

1 6. That Respondent may petition the Board at a future time to request any further
2 changes or amendment to this Probationary Order.
